

our vision:

disciples whose music-making reflects Jesus.

our mission:

training and resources in worship and music for the everyday Anabaptist.

Dear Friends,

Having just come through the Christmas season, I am freshly grateful for God's work in creation—and then, after our sin, for His work through Christ in new creation. We have great expectation and hope for God's good future, which energizes our work today.

You may remember that I will be moving out of the Executive Director position in the fall. The board is actively seeking a replacement, and also developing strategy for ongoing fruitfulness in the coming years. Transitions are vulnerable, and we're seeking a path that protects and grows the mission of SCMC.

We are of course preparing for this year's camps. We love the way these camps bring people together and help them grow, benefiting both individuals and communities. Curriculum and resources are moving forward (see below).

Our fiscal Q1 ended Dec. 31. We are glad to report a strong first quarter financially. Year-end giving has been very helpful. Q2-Q4 are often more challenging.

We are looking for corporate sponsors to help meet a $35,000 matching fund challenge this spring.

Thank you for your ongoing support. We are grateful to God to be partnering with you in His work of redemption and new creation.

Wendell Nisly
Executive Director

camps & events

PermaCamps—Most of our (rather extensive) homework is complete. We are ready to launch early registration on January 15.

Three mobile/mini camps are in various stages of planning —Baltic, OH; Fairland, OK; Hutchinson, KS.

Sing for Joy—We have formed a curriculum committee (Franklin Miller, Brandon Mullet, Lyle Stutzman) to help us review Grades K-4, and help us plan a strategy for developing 5-12. They are giving us great input!

The next Rudiments curriculum, newly titled Discover: Encountering and Singing the Splendor of God, is revised and in print. We now have our own curriculum for all four levels of rudiments at the camps. It is also available for purchase on our website.

music

The College Music Students are meeting monthly via Zoom for support and encouragement. In February, they will meet for a weekend retreat in VA. I am grateful to see the level of thoughtful intentionality in this group. They will be great builders in their communities.

I always view music camp as a place of singing and learning more about music. This week it showed me that it's not just singing, but worshiping and praising the One who gave us a voice to sing, and gaining tools to better praise Him. I greatly appreciate the mid-morning interlude as a time to calm myself, and reconnect with God in the midst of a full schedule. I love the welcoming, relaxed atmosphere. I would highly recommend Music Camp to anyone!
